Introduction to Safeguarding

Raising Awareness of Abuse and Neglect in Children
(1/2 day course)

Learning Outcomes

- To be aware of the key legislation and policies for working together to safeguard children
- To have an awareness of what is meant by child abuse, neglect and learn about possible signs, symptoms and indicators
- To demonstrate an understanding of your safeguarding roles and responsibilities
- Know how to report concerns

Target Group

This course is aimed at all professional and voluntary staff who work across Gwent. It will be of particular relevance for individuals who have contact with children and families but may not necessarily work directly with children.

The South East Wales Safeguarding Children Board is a multi-agency partnership that has the strategic lead for safeguarding children in this region. One of the statutory duties of the Board is to provide safeguarding children training across agencies and sectors. This includes basic introductory courses to more specialised training.
