Safeguarding Children in the use of Social Media, Internet, Gaming and Mobile Devices

Aims of the Day

- To provide participants with a basic knowledge and understanding of Safety with Technology

Objectives of the course

For participants to:

- Have an understanding of their responsibilities in safeguarding children
- Know how to promote positive and safe use of technologies
- Actively promote E-safety messages and tips from this course
- Know where to go for advice and support

Target Group

This course is aimed at all professional and voluntary sector staff who work regularly with children and young people. The training will be especially relevant for those that work in settings where children and young people have access to technology, for example. Schools. Youth Services and Libraries etc.

The South East Wales Safeguarding Children Board is a multi-agency partnership that has the strategic lead for safeguarding children in this region. One of the statutory duties of the Board is to provide safeguarding children training across agencies and sectors. This includes basic introductory courses to more specialised training.
