

Violence Against Women, Domestic Abuse and Sexual Violence
Trais Yn Erbyn Menywod, Cham-drin Domestig a Thrais Rhywiol

Working with Men who Experience Domestic Abuse

Available to participants who have completed the Male Victims of Domestic Abuse Awareness course ½ day course useful for both managers and frontline professionals wishing to develop their understanding in relation to providing appropriate responses to male clients experiencing domestic abuse.

Facilitated by: Safer Wales

The Safer Wales Dyn project has developed a number of guiding principles for its work, which include;

Appropriate services for all men which are effective in reducing risk and increasing safety

An appropriate assessment protocol is essential in order to identify, and respond appropriately to counter-allegations of domestic abuse

Learning Outcomes

- To gain skills in responding appropriately to male victims
- How to identify men on a scale from 'victim' to 'perpetrator'
- To be able to use these skills and knowledge, supported by the Dyn assessment tool for work with male victims

Target group: Practitioners working in domestic abuse and sexual violence, organizations that work with men, or wish to develop their services to work with men.
