

Proposed Action Plan for the Spring term 2016 consultations with young people

Proposed Recommendation	Action	By whom	By when
Information on substance misuse, safety with technology, sex education and healthy relationships needs to be provided age appropriately, throughout the age range, in greater depth and earlier than at present; by expert professionals in those topics in a non-judgemental way	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each of the LA Education Directors are sent a letter asking for them to disseminate the messages of the consultations and to request that schools review their PSHE curriculum in relation to content, age and to consider who delivers the programmes. • Letters sent out to LA Education Directors 6 months after first letter requesting for information on what schools have done in response to first request 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chair of the Board via Business Unit, LA Directors of Education • Chair of the Board via Business Unit, LA Directors of Education 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • September 2016 • March 2017
Adults, including parents, need to be supported to access current and accurate substance misuse information and E-safety information so that children can go to them for support and advice.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Collate a central resource of information on substance misuse that is accessible for professionals and organisations • Promote the awareness raising of substance misuse information through organisations networks and current mechanisms • Collate a central resource of information on E-safety that is accessible for professionals and organisations • Promote the awareness raising of E-safety information through organisations networks and current mechanisms 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Priority theme group • Engagement & Communication Group, Local Safeguarding Networks • Priority theme group • Engagement & Communication Group, Local Safeguarding Networks 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • January 2016 • March 2016 • January 2016 • March 2016