Introduction to Adult Safeguarding

Safeguarding is Everybody's Responsibility

(½ day course)

Learning Outcomes

- To be aware of the main legislation and policies for working together to safeguarding people
- Have an awareness of what is meant by abuse and neglect and learn about the possible signs, symptoms and indicators
- To be able to demonstrate an understanding of their roles and responsibilities within a multi agency safeguarding context
- To know that it is okay to contact Social Services for advice

Target Group

This course is aimed at all professional and voluntary staff who work across Gwent. It will be of particular relevance for individuals who have contact with adults at risk and families but may not necessarily work directly with adults. The course is delivered on a multi-agency basis and is an introduction to safeguarding.

Please note the closure date for each course will be 2 weeks prior to the course date.
