

Safeguarding Children: Recognition, Referral and the Child Protection Process

Learning Outcomes - by the end of this training, participants will be able:

- To demonstrate an understanding of key legislation and procedural guidance underpinning child protection
- To know the function of the Safeguarding Children Board and the rationale for child practice reviews
- To define the categories of child abuse and identify the outcomes of possible abuse within the current social context and in line with government guidance
- To recognise how values, beliefs and attitudes can influence the judgements made in relation to child protection
- To demonstrate an understanding of roles and responsibilities within a multi-agency child protection context.
- To describe your role within safeguarding children
- To explain the child protection process from referral through to conference

Target Group: This course is specifically aimed at all professionals and volunteers across Gwent, who may be required to make referrals regarding children and their families. Participants may come from a wide variety of settings, for example, housing, early years, primary health services, education and community settings and other care providers.

The course can be used to refresh your existing knowledge of safeguarding, as it will provide an understanding of the referral process through to child protection conference.

Please note the closure date for each course will be 2 weeks prior to the course date.
